

Job Description

Role:	Specialist Housing Navigator (Female)
Reports to:	Services Manager
Direct reports:	None
Budgetary responsibility:	None
Location:	St Pauls, Bristol

Job purpose: The purpose of this role is to provide specialist housing support to street sex-working women, in the community, enabling them to find and maintain safe and appropriate accommodation. This will reduce the vulnerability of women and support them to achieve their goals. She will work closely with relevant partner agencies who provide accommodation and will be responsible for her own caseload on a daily basis, working alongside the casework team to deliver services of a high quality.

Job accountabilities:

- To locate, identify and engage with hidden homeless women via street outreach, van outreach (at least monthly) and the One25 front line teams.
- To support women to find and maintain safe accommodation by advocating on their behalf and providing practical and emotional support. Working in partnership with support agencies, (housing providers, local authority, legal support services) and provide crisis prevention support.
- To coordinate transitions and provide specialist advice to workers in supported accommodation schemes to support women to sustain accommodation and move positively through the housing pathway.
- Ensure women are receiving all benefits they are entitled to, supporting them with applications/appointments and advocating for them if necessary. Support women to open bank/credit union accounts to manage their own cash and to apply for any grants they may be entitled to.
- To support women to engage with opportunities around employment and education, building resilience, confidence and self-esteem.
- Collect and record monitoring and evaluation information and input into One25's client database. In addition, liaise with fundraisers to input into fundraising applications and reports as necessary.
- Maintain good working relationships and local working partnerships ensuring a robust multi-agency approach to improve health and wellbeing, access to treatment and build recovery networks.

- Note and feed back to other agencies any barriers to accessing services that One25 women are experiencing. Plan and deliver training to external agencies.
- Work alongside One25's programs of work and liaise with the Services Managers according to One25's pathways of Care, contributing to wider organisational aims.
- Prepare person centered support plans taking into account the needs and risks of the women, ensure Safeguarding of Vulnerable Adults and Children legislation and protocols are adhered too.
- Any other duties the manager considers appropriate.

Measures for the role:

- Access to and sustainment of safe accommodation for women, reducing repeat homelessness and positive move on through the housing pathway.
- Developing trusting relationships to enable progress and strong advocacy with housing agencies and providers.
- Maintaining a tenancy e.g. managing utilities, debt, service charges/HB.
- Improved health and wellbeing for women, linking them into appropriate services to meet their needs.

Any other responsibilities:

- Take part in some One25 outreach and be on the Outreach On-Call rota.
- Any other duties the Manager considers appropriate.
- To work outside office hours at manager's request.
