

Specialist Housing Navigator (Female, 1 year contract)

If you are a confident, pro-active team worker with great interpersonal skills that will enable you to establish and maintain good working relationships with One25 women and you are passionate about supporting some of Bristol's most vulnerable women to access and sustain safe accommodation to make positive changes in their lives, this could be you.

We are looking for a Specialist Housing Navigator to locate, identify and engage with hidden homeless women in Bristol who are involved in street sex working. Via referrals from the One25 casework team, the post holder will build relationships of trust with women and advocate on their behalf to support them to gain access to housing. They will work alongside housing providers to advise them on supporting women and moving them positively through the housing pathway.

One25 is a Bristol based, registered charity (No. 1062391) providing services for women trapped in street sex-work and those who are building positive new lives away from the streets.

It is an Occupational Requirement that applications for this post are open to women only, as permitted under Schedule 9, Part 1, of the Equality Act 2010. Enhanced DBS disclosure will be required.

We particularly encourage applications from Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) candidates, as these groups are underrepresented in our workforce.

Hours: 37.5 hours per week, to include occasional evening commitments for which time off in lieu will be given.

Salary: £28,450

Contract: Fixed term until 31st March 2021
